Mr. Perry,

Though I have only worked since April for IndyMac I was very excited for the opportunity to work for your company. I find it very unfortunate the variety of factors that led to this point but have no doubt all was done that could be done to preserve this company. In my short time here I was very impressed by the culture and transparency you had created. I came to Indymac after closing my own company that I ran for one year. Prior to that I had worked for John Johnston for 10 years, immediately after I had graduated college. There is no one in this industry than I have more respect for than John and even in my short time here it was apparent you came from the same type of stock. I wish you nothing but success in the future and was very glad I had the opportunity to work for your company if even for such a short period.
