Mike,

You are a great person and a great leader.....your integrity is honorable and appreciated. I thank you and wish you the ability to save yourself from undue stress. Life is much more important than to let the stress of all of this affect your health or family. Hard work when it moves you forward is worth it...and that's a healthy stress. Degrading and work that beats you up is a total waste of effort and time. Focus on the positives or yourself for you have MANY! and your endeavors will follow.

I'm sad for all the economic factors we all face as a nation in these times, so we have to position ourselves to sustain.

Take care,
