

Dear Michael Perry:

Thank you! You have given me an opportunity to show my worth and value to a company. When I first resigned my commission from the Navy, no one would give me a chance. I had various odd jobs and in some cases two jobs at once.

Thank you for your respect and honesty to the veterans like me under your employment. My prayers are for you and your family as much as they are for everyone else affected by this situation. It has been an honor for me and my wife.

Sincerely,
