Mike I just wanted to say that you are one of my heroes. I have the utmost respect for you, if I can be half the man you are, I will be doing good! I know there is not much I can offer you, but if you ever need a friend or just want to talk to some one that can listen objectively, please feel free to give me a call. I have been through a lot in my life and unfortunately I kept a lot of it to my self, not asking for help. I made it through it all but it was tough! Do not try and get through this alone, yea you can probably do it, but when you rely on your friends and family I am sure it will be easier. Reach out to them, we have been sitting on your shoulders for years and this time it is your turn, to look for others for support, also look to God. I know it may not look like it know but he has a plan for you, you may not see it now, but he will show you the way if you will let him. Even though I have never met you I would like to be a friend, if you will take it. Here is my contact info, if you ever feel that you need to reach out to someone, someone that is removed from this, I am here. Take care and God bless you,
