Subject: RE: Thank You

When the dusk settles and you get to your place in Newport Beach for a weekend I would appreciate a call. I would love to share a meal or at least allow my wife and myself to shake your hand and say thank you face to face to your wife and yourself. Only known you for a year but you are special. I was wondering to myself how you take all of this that you have experienced and use it as the foundation for what you will build next. I have had a few challenging time in my business career and it is in these times that you learn the most but it takes a little time to realize all that you did learn. You and your family are in our prayers.
